

2009 Pediatric Pharmacy Conference | 18th Annual PPAG Meeting
Renaissance Cleveland Hotel
Cleveland, Ohio
September 24-27, 2009

The 18th Pediatric Pharmacy Conference and PPAG Annual Meeting is designed for practitioners and administrators involved in the drug therapy decision for children, and who understand the unique needs of the pediatric patient. Yet all pharmacists can benefit from this conference. We are honored to have our keynote address given by Michael Anderson, MD, of University Hospitals of Cleveland on the topic of Children and Disaster Response. Additionally, Steven Spielberg, MD will receive the Yaffe Award and give the annual Yaffe Lecture on September 25, 2009. Milap Nahata, MS, Pharm.D will receive Helms Award and give the annual Helms Lecture on September 26, 2009. Other subjects will include issues in the care of adolescents, grant writing, the role of biologics in rheumatology, care of diabetic children, and topics in leadership.

If you are interested in more information please visit the PPAG website at www.ppag.org